

CITY NOTES.

Charles J. Cox, the well-known tenor, and Miss Felicitia E. Bolean, were married on the 24th ult. at St. Michael's Church, by the Rev. Father Eustace, assisted by Rev. Father Bourke. The choir was under the direction of J. J. Voellmecke, assisted by Miss Annie Fulton and Messrs. Ravold and Lebrecht. A reception was held in the evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. August William Hoffmann, of St. Louis, and Mr. Karl Schimpff, of Scranton, honored our editorial sanctum with a social visit last week. Mr. Hoffmann is the composer of a very graceful composition called the Pearl Gavotte, which is quite a favorite of Bandmaster Gilmore. As soon as he espied the composer in the audience at Manhattan Beach, Mr. Gilmore gave an impromptu rendering of the Pearl Gavotte, not on the programme, and upon its conclusion faced the audience and saluted the composer, whose face was suffused with blushes at the notoriety which the unexpected compliment had given him.—Am. Mus.

✓ A Piano Recital by the pupils of Miss Carrie Vollmar, assisted by Miss Julia Vollmar, soprano, Mr. H. H. Jacoby, tenor, Mr. Hy. Alt, Jr., basso, and the Olympic Quintette, was given on the 11th ult. at South St. Louis Turner Hall. The programme was very creditably carried out, and puts Miss Carrie Vollmar in the light of a very successful and painstaking teacher. The song, "Alpine Flowers," sung by Miss Julia Vollmar, evoked the greatest applause, and proved the singer to be quite a favorite, all of which she deserves. The playing of the little Misses Annie and Lily Mauerhof, six and eight years old respectively, and Carrie Moewell, six years, was delightfully surprising.

The outlook for music the coming season is most encouraging. It is understood that the Musical Union and Choral Society will give at least two concerts more this season than last; besides, there are many concert companies booked, which will necessitate the employment of many local musicians, as the Interstate Commerce Law makes it too expensive to carry large orchestras.

Hulbert Bros., of 923 Olive St., are saving their cash customers a great deal of money on pianos by giving them regular wholesale prices. New uprights range from $150.00 to $300.00 according to grade.

Mme. Nevada is at present in Paris, where she will remain until the beginning of October, when she goes on a concert tour through Holland.

Mendelssohn was penetrated with the spirit of modern culture; and the intellectual life we find in his works emanates entirely from the spirit of the nineteenth century—a spirit that most particularly demands a fresh vigor and courageous striving.—PAUER.

Music ought to be—like poetry, and like all that is true, genuine and grand—simple and unaffected; it ought to be the exact, true and natural expression of feeling.—GLUCK.

Gustav Schumann, a well-known German pianist, died recently at Berlin, aged seventy-four; Gustav Lange, whose death occurred recently, was one of Schumann's pupils.

A Grand Concert was given at the A. I. U. Chapel, Fayetteville, Ark., August 20th, under the direction of Miss Kate V. King. The programme included Serenade-Rhapsodies Hongroise, Nos. 2 and 12, Liszt; Kamennol Ostrow-Rubenstein, of Kunkel's Royal Edition; Il Trovatore duet, Melnotte, and The Storm, by Charles Kunkel. For Bronchitis, Colds and Coughs, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is an unfailing remedy. It soothes irritated membranes, stops the coughing, and allays inflammation. Taken in the early stages of the disease, the cure is almost instantaneous. It is well to have this preparation always at hand.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for bronchitis and lung diseases, for which I believe it to be the greatest medicine in the world."—James Miller, Caraway, N. C.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of chronic bronchitis in two months, when the local doctors considered my case incurable."—J. B. Lardinois, Rosiere, Wisconsin.

"I had a severe attack of bronchitis. The usual remedies failed. I bought a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was helped from the first dose. Less than one bottle cured me."—George B. Hunter, Altoona, Pa.

"My wife was afflicted with bronchitis for a number of years. Having used various remedies, without relief, she concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking two bottles of this medicine, she was entirely cured."—S. B. Schuck, Associate Judge, Hummel's Wharf, Snyder Co., Pa.

"My wife was attacked with a bronchial trouble, which we feared would prove fatal. As physicians failed to afford relief, we began giving ry Pectoral, and it cured her."—(Rev.) W. W. Atwater, Rutland, Vt.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

If neglected, often lead to severe illness. Few lungs can long stand the strain of a violent Cough without injury, and the rupture of a small blood-vessel may prove a serious matter. As an anodyne, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has no equal.

"In January last, Mrs. Ball contracted a cold resulting in a severe cough, which continued for several weeks, and so reduced her that we entertained fears she might not recover. Noticing your advertisement in 'The Congregationalist,' I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, at Hubbard & Proctor's drug store, in this city, and I am happy to state that the use of this preparation has resulted in a cure."—H. A. Ball, Newton, Mass.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage, brought on by an incessant cough. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, a few bottles of which cured me."—Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

Prof. F. Sweetzer, Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., said to his class: "I am convinced that medical science has produced no anodyne expectorant equal to Ayer's Cher-

GILMORE!!

What magic in that name!
The only Gilmore is charming thousands nightly with his wonderful band!
Gilmore's Autobiography will be one of the most readable, ever written. What the Colonel does is in the height of style.

A volume of memoirs will soon be out which will have an unexampled sale, if the popularity of the hero and the author is any guide to the success of a book. The hero is Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore, and the author is Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore; in other words, it is the Autobiography of P. S. Gilmore, and a very entertaining book it is, for what he does not know is not worth knowing, and he writes with all the wit and humor of his native land. If you want an édition de luxe, limited, you can be accommodated, and receive with it a photograph of the genial conductor and his bold autograph.

THE CHORAL SOCIETY.

The prospects of the Choral Society this year are most flattering. The first rehearsal was largely attended, and good work done. All wishing to join in the chorus work may apply to Mr. Jos. Otten, the director; such as have good voices, but are backward in reading, will be placed in the chorus class and taught, free of charge. Applications for membership in both chorus and chorus class must be made to Mr. Otten at his rooms, No. 2344 Olive street, between the hours of 6 and 7 P. M. The members of last year's class are now passing a re-examination, in order to ascertain what progress has been made. Those who pass are expected to take up the study of the Messiah, and join the Choral Society at the end of November.

DEATH OF DR. LOUIS MAAS.

Dr. Louis Maas, the world-renowned pianist and composer died on the 17th ult. of peritonitis, at his Boston home; he was taken ill at Paris, whence he had just returned.

Dr. Maas was born at Weisbaden, June 21st, 1852, receiving his education in England. He was a pupil of Reinecke and Pappentz, at Leipzig, and was at one time Professor at the Kullak Conservatory—having as many as five hundred pupils, of whom two hundred were Americans. He came to this country in 1880, and of late had devoted himself chiefly to concert work. He was connected with the New England Conservatory of Music, and in 1881 conducted the orchestral concerts of the Boston Philharmonic Society. His compositions include an American symphony entitled "On the Prairies," a piano concerto, suite for orchestra, a fantastic stueck, triumphal march, several overtures for orchestra, three sonatas, a violin concerto, string quartet, numerous songs, and thirty or forty piano compositions. Alfred University, New York, conferred upon him his title of Doctor of Music. He was a consummate artist, beloved by all with whom he came in contact. His visits to this city were always artistic triumphs, and among our people he had many warm personal friends.

P(ommery) S(eo) GILMORE.

Like all great men, Mr. Patrick Sarsfield Gilmore is somewhat bothered by people who insist on claiming acquaintance with him. During the night of the Dixey Ball, the hero of that famous occasion told me that he had shaken hands with five hundred men and women who said that they were old friends of his, although he was certain that he had never seen them before. At Manhattan Beach, Mr. Gilmore was equally pestered by strangers who wanted to be seen talking to him. The plump and genial leader was standing at the Manhattan bar one night, after a concert, imbibing cool drinks with a couple of his friends, when two gentlemen came into the cafe. One of them officiously stepped up to the musician and said: "How do you do, Mr. Gilmore?" Pretty well, thank you," returned Patrick, vaguely trying to remember the speaker's face. Tame, desultory conversation ensued, during which Gilmore was silently endeavoring to discover whether the man who had joined them was really an acquaintance of his or an introduction "beat." Finally, the intruder said: "By the way, Mr. Gilmore, my friend over there and I have been holding a discussion about what your initials stand for. Can you enlighten us?" "I can," returned Gilmore, pleasantly, "that is, if you are willing to stand it." "Stand it?" said the other, wondering. "Why, of course. What do you mean? I merely want to know what the P. S. mean." "Pommery Sec," returned Mr. Gilmore, neatly. A large bottle was ordered on the spot.

COL. GILMORE'S LITTLE RUSE.

I attended a rehearsal of Gilmore's Band in New York a few years ago, says a writer in the Minneapolis Tribune, and in my own quiet, unassuming way, picked up a few ideas as to how Mr. Gilmore keeps his men under such perfect control. They were practicing a new and difficult composition on the morning when I loomed up before them. Mr. Gilmore was standing on a little platform, waving his baton energetically. The band were playing for all they were worth. Suddenly Mr. Gilmore stamped his foot, frowned viciously, and on the instant the music ceased. I wondered why this was, as my untrained ears could detect no discord. With a stern look on his face, the great bandmaster turned and pointed his baton at a cowering trombone-player over in one corner. In a voice that sounded like the wrath of the storm-king, in Kunkel's Alpine Storm. Mr. Gilmore said:

"Karl, that was very, very bad. The beers are on you." Then he raised his magical wand aloft, and the music began again.

"Pat," said I shortly afterward, in low, dulcet and somewhat familiar tones, "what did you mean by saying 'the beers are on you?'"

"Don't you know, James?" he replied. "Well, I'll tell you. When one of my musicians makes a mistake I fine him by compelling him to buy the beer for the crowd after rehearsal. It's a great scheme, and it pleases everybody but the victim."

DENVER, COLORADO.

Miss Lottie Gerak, St. Louis, Mo.:

DEAR MISS—The people of Denver have read and heard so much of your success as an Artist Pianist in Vienna, New York and St. Louis, and also of the honors which you have received at the hands of so many noted Musicians and Piano Makers and the people generally upon your return to America, that we desire to hear you play in Denver. Will you kindly give us a concert in Denver some time in November or December, 1889? The people of Denver love beautiful music and we have no doubt but that they will appreciate your talent by filling the largest Opera House you can secure in Denver. Yours very sincerely,

(Signed.)

LIGHT, THE DENVER CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, by IDA SERVEN, Prin. and others.

Franz Bausemer has returned from Europe.

The St. Louis Exposition is the success of the age.

The Hatton Glee Club sang at one of the Gilmore concerts.

Otto Anschuetz has written a very pretty march, entitled "My Regiment."

"Gavotte," "The Pearl," by August W. Hoffmann, is one of Gilmore's greatest favorites.

August W. Hoffmann's latest composition is "Alone"—a very captivating piano solo. It appears in our Nov. issue.

The "Alpine Storm," by Charles Kunkel, was the feature on the programme "Legion of Honor night."

Henry E. Groffman sang "The Lost Chord," by Sullivan, at the Exposition Music Hall, with great success.

Madame Ysidora E. Clarke has returned from the East, and has taken up her classes at the Conservatory.

Messrs. Steinway & Sons, with their usual liberality, have presented Miss Lottie Gerak with a fine grand piano.

F. Victor Hoffman, the violinist, left for Scranton, Pa., to accept a position in the Carl Schimpff Conservatory of Music.

Mr. A. G. Robyn's latest hit is "Yearning," dedicated to Miss Lillian Russell; it received a triple encore in the "Brigands."

Active preparations are making by the German singing societies for the Saengerfest, to be held in February next year, at New Orleans.

Prof. Chas. H. Galloway, the popular organist of St. George's Church, gave an organ recital at Ironton, Ohio. He also made a flying visit to Cincinnati.

Mr. N. F. Mader, representing the well-known house of Kranich & Bach, recently passed through the city. He reports large sales, and is consequently happy.

August Halter, the irrepressible organist of the Second Baptist Church, spent his vacation in Illinois. He is doing creditable work, and feels proud of his choir.

"The Alpine Storm," by Charles Kunkel, has been played by Gilmore's band in over one hundred cities, East, West and South, during the past year, with the greatest success.

Miss Lottie Gerak was tendered a serenade by the Liederkranz at her home. Miss Gerak's first appearance will be at the Exposition building, Nov. 20, after which she will appear in regular concert work.

Miss B. Mahan has returned from her summer vacation looking the very picture of health. In addition to her organ classes at the Beethoven Conservatory, she will continue to favor a few private pupils.

Earl L. Sykes, pianist and teacher, comes among us highly recommended by the celebrated Dr. Wm. Mason, Wm. H. Sherwood, and Edgar S. Kelly. Mr. Sykes has located at 2621 Gamble street. We wish him every success.

Sonnenfelds' grand opening and exposition of fall-pattern hats and bonnets at their handsome quarters, 815 to 821 North Broadway, was one of the great features of the year. A select orchestra, rare plants and delicious bon-bons rendered all pleasant and sweet. Every article of millinery is manufactured by themselves and offered at the lowest price. Ladies' knit and muslin underwear, cloaks, corsets, jewelry, toilet sets, gents' furnishings, kid gloves, hosiery, etc., etc., can be had at fabulously low prices. What Sonnenfelds say is meant. If you want to buy, they will sell to suit you.

MAJOR AND MINOR.

Miss Jessie Foster will give a concert in Jefferson City on October 21st. She will be assisted by E. R. Kroeger, pianist, and Guido Parisi, violinist.

Snipe on Toast, Milford's Ladies' and Gents' Dining Parlors, 207 and 209 North Sixth.

Sembrich.—Mme. Sembrich has yielded to the pressure of German music, and is studying the role of Elsa in "Lohengrin," in the expectation of singing it soon in Berlin.

J. A. Carson gave a piano recital at the residence of David Culbertson, White Hall, Ill. The programme included "Danse Caractéristique," duet, by E. R. Kroeger, played by Miss Gertrude Carson and J. A. Carson.

Christine Nilsson has become deaf. Mme. Nilsson's deafness comes from rheumatism, and the rheumatism was caused by a general upset of the nerves six years ago, when the songstress lost the whole of her fortune in the Union Generale.

Mrs. De Bar, widow of Ben De Bar the famous old-time actor and manager, and Mr. Simcoe Lee, who was a great favorite in all the leading cities of the country about forty years ago, have both been admitted to the Forrest Home for old actors in Philadelphia.

Reeves.—A correspondent writes: "I heard the old tenor, Sims Reeves, sing that most beautiful of all songs, Beethoven's 'Adelaide,' last night, and it was worth the trip to England. It was a finished piece of work, artistic, and filled with the sympathy that it so much requires. Not a note, not a phrase was slighted, but the whole aria stood out a complete thing of beauty."

Adolph Henselt, the great pianist and composer for the piano forte, who has reached the ripe age of 75, is reported to be dying at his summer home in Warmbrunn, Germany, where he spends his vacation when absent from St. Petersburg. Henselt has been director of the "High School of Music for Young Noblewomen" in Russia for half a century.

Soft Shell Crabs and Lobsters served at Milford's Ladies' and Gents' Dining Parlors, 207 and 209 North Sixth.

Count Hochberg, general intendant of the Berlin theaters, has just issued a curious edict which prohibits the female members of the different troupes employed in the Royal theaters from occupying apartments of which the rent is out of proportion to the salaries they receive! The first application of the new law was made in the case of a charming ingenue of the theater of drama, who was requested to exchange her lodgings of fourteen rooms for modest quarters!

Those interested in the origin of popular old songs will read with pleasure the following quotation from the Cleveland and Chicago Musical World: "Sing a song of sixpence" is as old as the sixteenth century. "Three blind mice" is found in a music-book dated 1609; "The frog and the mouse" was known in 1580. "Three children sliding on the ice" dates from 1659. "London bridge is broken down" is of unfathomed antiquity. "Girls and boys, come out to play," is certainly as old as the reign of Charles II., as is also "Lucy Locket lost her pocket," to the tune of which the American song of "Yankee Doodle" was written. "Pussy cat, pussy cat, where have you been?" is of the age of Queen Bess. "Little Jack Horner" is older than the seventeenth century. "The old woman tossed in a blanket" is of the reign of James II., to which monarch it is supposed to allude."

Wm. M. Jenkins, organist of the Church of the Holy Communion, will play a farewell service in Christ Church, Louisville, on the 6th of October, at the earnest solicitation of his many friends there. All pieces contained in any copy of the REVIEW can be had of Kunkel Bros., the publishers, or any first class music house in the country in regular sheet music form. Parties stating otherwise are falsifiers.
